FIRE IN A COAL MINE,

With the Loss of Ten Human Lives by Suffocation.

THE MEN CAUGHT LIKE MICE IN A TRAP.

Their Bodies Recovered by a Rescuing Party of Six Brave Men—Two Corpses Found Locked in a Last Embrace—Pathetic Scenes.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., April 2.—The fire which occurred in the Nelson shaft yesterday morning and which resulted in such a terrible sacrifice of lives, started about twenty feet from the bottom of the shaft, where is an oil-house which is used by the men to change their working clothes for others before leaving the mines.

About 6:30 o'clock a Hungarian was filling his lamp and it exploded, igniting the oil about him. He rushed from the oil-house and the flames spread with rapidity. Attempts were made to subdue the fire, but those who started, to do so were compelled to flee for their lives. They succeeded in rescuing the bottom of the shaft and were hauled to the surface along with some belated miners who owe their lives to the fact that they did not go to work at the usual time.

The ten men who lost their lives were at work in the Red Ash vein, located nearly 100 feet above where the fire broke out. Through an air-way from the lower vein to the Red Ash vein the smoke poured, suffocating the unfortunates like rats in a trap.

Almost the entire town gathered in the vicinity of the burning mine, from their passages of which great volumes of smoke were issuing. The scenes were most distressing. The wives and children of the imprisoned men uttered agonizing cries, and implored the men in the crowd to rescue their loved ones.

About midday a rescuing party of six brave men went down the shaft and entered the burning vein. The smoke was so dense that they were compelled to lie down on their stomachs and keep a wet sponge to their nostrils to avoid suffocation. When they had proceeded a short distance, they came across the bodies of two men locked in each other's arms. They were the Brennan brothers, James and Michael. Further on the bodies of eight more were found, making ten dead in all.

The bodies were removed to the surface with much difficulty. They were taken to the blacksmith shop where the most pathetic scenes were witnessed. Three of the men were married and had large families. The others were young men, averaging less than 25 years of age. Only two males were taken out alive. Five were found with their necks resting over each other's bodies. How they got together in this position is a mystery. There are altogether thirty dead males in the mine.

Tobacco Factory Burned.
NEW YORK, April 3.—The seven-story brick building No. 709 and 711 Second avenue, with a frontage of eighty feet on East Thirty-eighth street, which was formerly owned by the firm of W. Duke, Sons & Co. as a cigarette factory, but more recently by the American Tobacco Co., of which J. B. Duke is president, as a manufactory of smoking and chewing tobacco, was destroyed by fire early yesterday morning. James B. Duke places the total loss at $400,000. This loss is fully covered by insurance.

Between 500 and 600 girls were employed in the building. The news of the disaster had scarcely reached the managers of the company when arrangements were made to send them all to Baltimore, where they will find temporary work in the factory of Gail, Axe & Co., the employees will leave for Baltimore to-morrow.

The stock was valued at $600,000, the machinery at $240,000 and the building at $100,000.

Trouble Expected in the Evangelical Conference.
FREEPORT, Ill., April 3.—The Dubuque faction of the Evangelical church will hold their conference in this city this week. There will be 150 delegates present. Bishop Stanford, of Pennsylvania, and Bishop Dubs, of Chicago, will be present. It is feared that under the recent ruling of the supreme court of Illinois trouble will take place, and that the Escher faction will get out an injunction restraining the body from using the Salem church, of this city, where the meeting is to be held.

The Murderer of John M. Clayton.
LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 3.—A telegram was received by the governor yesterday afternoon from Sheriff White saying that he would leave Butte, Mont., at 7 o'clock last evening with Hickey, the man charged with the murder of John M. Clayton, and Burkhardt, the principal witness. It was learned last evening from M. S. Halliday, chief train dispatcher for the Iron Mountain, that Burkhardt was in his employ about five years ago, and was discharged about a week before Clayton was assassinated. This announcement greatly strengthens the story.

Shot and Instantly Killed His Companion in Play.
RAPID CITY, S. D., April 3.—Allie Boutwell, a 12-year-old boy, shot and instantly killed Ellet Tucker at a ranch near this city yesterday. The boys were playing hunter, and young Boutwell grasped his needle-gun, which had not been loaded for months until yesterday, and fired with the result stated. Crazed by fear and regret, the boy is now wandering somewhere on the prairies.

The First Conviction in the Santa Fe Train Robbery Cases.
TRINIDAD, Col., April 3.—The first conviction in the Santa Fe train robbery cases was had Saturday, when the jury brought in a verdict finding Brakeman Brown guilty on two counts. The other cases have gone over for one month.

BEATING THE JUDGE.

How the Brotherhood Men Will Boycott the Ann Arbor Road.

TOLEDO, O., April 3.—Meetings of engineers and firemen were held in this city yesterday, at which it was decided to stand by the Ann Arbor strikers, no matter what the decision of the court expected to be handed down today may be. When asked what action would be taken in case the decision is adverse to the men, the leaders say that Ann Arbor freight will not be touched under any condition. The suggestion that this could not be done with respect to the law if the courts decide all boycotts illegal, brought out the following statement:

"The injunction has been brought to prevent Chief Arthur from ordering the engineers on roads connecting with the Ann Arbor to refuse to handle freight and cars of that road because there is a strike among its engineers and firemen. We have no doubt that the preliminary injunction granted by Judge Ricks will be made perpetual. That does not prevent the men quitting work, does it. The fact is that Chief Arthur has not the power to order a boycott or strike away. The members of the brotherhood simply quit without orders of anyone and it will be a task for the court to reach the power which causes the boycotts by means of injunctions. We shall simply resign from the service of our employer when we are asked to do Ann Arbor business."

Judge Ricks will open court at 9:30 o'clock to-day and will give his decisions in the cases for engineers who are charged with contempt of his mandatory order issued on March 11 in Cleveland. He will also read the decision reached by himself and Judge Taft on the application of the order restraining Chief Arthur from ordering a boycott on the Ann Arbor or roads handling Ann Arbor freight.

Opposed to the Proposed Treaty.

NEW YORK, April 3.—A lecture on the "Russo-American Treaty" was delivered last night in this city by Nicholas Aleimikoff, chairman of the Russian-American national league. The lecturer was a student at Kieff in Southern Russia; spoke of the treaty from both a Russian and American standpoint, and especially of its effect in relation to political offenses. The clauses relating to political offenses, he said, was of no benefit to this country but would only benefit the czar. It was not a treaty that ought to be legalized by America. Under the proposed treaty forgery was made a crime. If a person in Russia was at all hostile to the government he would have to forge a passport to get out of the way, and without having committed any other offense would be extraditable. The treaty was a treaty not with a people, but with a class.

Death of Mrs. Mary Learned-Bartlett.

HANOVER, N. H., April 3.—Mary Learned-Bartlett, wife of ex-President Bartlett, of Dartmouth college, died suddenly this morning. She was the daughter of Rev. She was the first president of the Woman's Board of Missions for the interior and continued in that office until she came to Hanover, since when she has annually been made vice-president.

An Early Adjournment of the Senate Probable.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—The coming week in the senate will witness the continuance of the debate on the cases of senators appointed from western states, with a probability that before Saturday the vote will be taken. There now appears to be little, if any, reason why the senate cannot adjourn as soon as it is notified by the president that he has no further communication to send in. It is possible, but not likely, that the Roach investigation may be called up by the republicans this week.

Mark W. Harrington on the War Path.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—As a result of the controversy between Mark W. Harrington, of the weather bureau, and J. W. The investigation is expected by the management of the bureau to be made at once.

He was also quite badly bruised about the body and face, being rolled over by the cars. It is expected that he will recover.

FROM OVER THE SEAS.

In the Shadow of the Approaching Cholera Epidemic.

FUNERAL OF "SQUIRE" ABINGDON.

The New French Cabinet—A Bloodless Duel—Another Kick from Austria—Earthquake at Catania—Four Thousand Houses Burned.

A Gloomy Prospect.

LONDON, April 3.—The Easter vacation has been in the shadow of approaching cholera epidemic. In Russia the authorities have been forced to acknowledge the presence of disease in several cities and provinces, which according to all former official reports have been uninfected since December 1. German and Austrian physicians returning from tours of the provinces in question, however, state that there has not been a day since last June when there was the slightest evidence that the cholera was suppressed in any government south of St. Petersburg. In fourteen governments of southern, southeastern, eastern and northeastern Russia, the deaths have been numbered by the score by the week for the last six months. These governments include within their boundaries much of the Black Earth region, lands which are known as the granary of Russia. Hence to the horrors of epidemic has been added the appalling prospect of return of famine with typhus and other fevers in its wake.

Funeral of "Squire" Abingdon—An Unwelcome Mourner.

GLASGOW, April 2.—George Abingdon Baird, the noted sporting man, better known as "Squire" Abingdon, who died in New Orleans on March 18, was buried yesterday in the family vault in the churchyard at St. Nick, Scotland.

Charles Mitchell, the puglist, who went to America with the "Squires" and returned after the unexpected death of the latter, was present at the interment, but his presence was evidently distasteful to the relatives of the deceased. Mitchell was not allowed to join in the general procession. He sent a wreath, however, expressing his devotion and gratitude to his departed patron, and entered the churchyard and stood by the side of the grave while the remains were being lowered into the vault.

Develle, minister of foreign affairs.

Another Kick From Austria.

VIENNA, April 2.—The anti-Semites and the clericals are greatly agitated over the appointment by President Cleveland of Max Judd, of Missouri, as consul general for the United States at Vienna, the opposition to Judd being based upon the ground that he is a Hebrew, and therefore not a desirable person for the office. Petitions are being prepared and addressed to Emperor Francis Joseph and the Austrian foreign office asking that the imperial authorities shall refuse to accept Judd as American consul general.

DAILY REPUBLICAN.

D. E. HAMMER, J. W. F. GALEHORN.
HAMMER & GALEHORN, Prop'rs DECATUR, ILLINOIS.

Entered at the Post Office at Decatur, Illinois as second class mail matter.

MONDAY EVE., APRIL 3, 1905.

GREENBURY MARTIN, the Republican candidate for poundmaster, is a sure winner. Put that down.

MIDKIFF, Murphy, Poor, Connard and Miller are the Republican nominees for constables. They are all well known men and are not liable to be arrested by the quintet that is after them.

HARTIN O. WALLACE, the Republican nominee for town clerk, is a young man well qualified for the place and is situated so that he can attend to it, and there is no reason why the people should not choose him as their town clerk.

ROBERT W. FERGUSON, the Republican nominee for assessor, is thoroughly qualified by nature and experience for that position, and is a first-class runner besides. For these reasons he will be elected and will serve the people faithfully.

You may scour the records until you become tired, or you may start an inquiry that would spread over this entire township, and you could not discover a reason that could stand alone a minute why Henry F. May should be defeated for supervisor by his competitor.

Some busybodies are trying to give reasons why his competitor should be elected instead of "Cap" Lytle. These reasons would be amusing if they were not so superlatively silly. All the same, the people know Cap Lytle and will see that he is elected to-morrow.

We want good justices of the peace; men who will be a credit to the office and who do not know more than the supreme court. The Republican nominees for justices of the peace are such men.
They are: Hane, Hammer, Short, Wickeos and Provost. The people know them and will elect them.

EXAMINE the nominees for assistant supervisors on the Democratic ticket and then turn and examine the Republican nominees for those offices and give a single reason that rises above mere partisanism why the Republican nominees should not be elected as a matter of business. If you cannot do this, then vote for the Republican nominees.

DANIEL WHITSEL, as a commissioner of highways has been all that could be desired in that office. He has always been faithful to the interests of the people in road affairs. The Republicans have again put him on their ticket for that office which is an important one, not only to the people of the whole township, but especially so to the people of Decatur, who are interested in good roads.
Don't forget to elect Daniel Whitsel, the man who understands the wants of Decatur relating to good roads.

Would Seriously Injure Labor.
ED. REPUBLICAN—If congress should reduce the tariff to an extent that would increase our importations on an average of one hundred millions per year, what effect would it have on labor and the finances of the country? A MICHIGANIC.

Supposing that the average earnings per man of those who produce manufactures is $1,000 a year, and that 80 per cent. of the cost of his product is represented by his labor, saying nothing about the labor cost of the so-called raw material which he uses in his work which will amount to 10 per cent. additional as the entire labor cost of his product, to produce $100,000,000 worth of manufactures, it would require the united efforts of 80,000 workmen one year. Estimating five to the family these 80,000 workmen would represent a population of 400,000 living upon their earnings. That living would consist of all the necessities of life produced by tens of thousands of other people, which would include all kinds of vegetables, flour, meat, butter, lard, hay and corn raised by farmers, the services of physicians, dentists and ministers; the product of the milliners and dressmakers; the labor of blacksmiths, plumbers, tinmiths, shoemakers, hatters and tailors; merchandise sold by merchants of every kind of goods; and brick masons, carpenters and painters to build houses for them. Indeed, if the 400,000 people immediately representing the workmen and those required to furnish them with the necessities of life were in one place they would make a city of at least one million of people.

If the tariff on the goods to see 80,000 workmen make were so changed as to admit into our ports foreign goods of the same kind and quantity, one of two things must happen, either the 80,000 men would be thrown out of employment and they would cease to be the customers of the other class of people above enumerated, or they would be forced to work at such low wages as would enable their products to be sold in this market below the price that the foreign goods made by cheap labor could be sold. In other words, unless the $100,000,000 worth of foreign goods were kept out by a tariff or by low wages the 80,000 men would be out of a job, and we would be buying the products of laborers who would not be contributing a penny to the support of the government.

If we bought the goods abroad we would have to pay for them abroad and our people would be $100,000,000 poorer every year; to say nothing of the loss entailed by the idleness of four own people who were consumers when they were employed. If the tariff is changed so as to admit $100,000,000 worth of goods from abroad, which we are now making for ourselves, it will be a sorry day not only for our laboring people but for everybody else except those who handle foreign goods.

Don't Need a Change.
It is not an uncommon thing, and consequently not at all strange, that those who desire the places occupied by others are in favor of a change. This is as true in regard to political places as in other things in life. At the present time we have an exemplification of this fact in the claims of the Democratic leaders that we ought to have a change in the administration of our township affairs. To-morrow they will do all in their power to bring about a change by putting the Democrats in power in this township where the Republicans have had control for years.

It is worthy of note that no reasons of any kind are given why a change of this kind is necessary. The absence of any reason why there is no necessity, from a business point of view, for a change. For years and years the Republicans have had control of the affairs of this township and no one attempts to say that the affairs of the township have not been conducted on good, old-fashioned, honest methods. Notwithstanding the fact that during this period of control have been entered into for the building of bridges and other public improvements, amounting to hundreds of thousands of dollars, there has never yet been seen even a shade of suspicion that there has been any sort of jobbing, while on the other hand it is conceded that those who have held office have given the people value received for every dollar of the people's money which they have expended.

Then what reason exists for taking away from the Republicans the control of township affairs and giving it to the Democrats, unless it is that alliest of all reasons, namely, that the Democrats are out and want the offices. The people have tried Democrats upon their promises, in times past in other places, and these promises vanished after election and there was no change except in those who held office. We have an example of this in our state affairs, where the transfer of the control of the state to Democrats has not brought a single reform that party promised, except a change of the office.

The people of Decatur township will make no change in the management of the township to-morrow because there is no need of a change, and it would be a foolish thing to elect the Democratic township ticket, which the wiser Democrats themselves admit is much inferior to the Republican ticket.

Good Looks.

Good looks are more than skin deep depending upon a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the Liver be inactive, you have a Bilious Look, if your stomach be disordered you have a Dyspeptic Look, and if your Kidneys be affected you have a Pinched Look. Secure good health and you will have good looks. Electric Bitters is the great alterative. It acts directly on these vital organs. Cures Pimples, Brothels, Boils, and gives a good complexion. Sold

AT REST.

Death of W. T. Stamper at the Home of His Daughter in Riverside Place.

William T. Stamper, at an early day one of the leading dry goods merchants of Decatur, died Sunday, April 2, at 11:55
a. m., at the home of his daughter, Mrs.
Charles G. Martin in Riverside Place, at the corner of South Main street and Lincoln avenue.

Mr. Stamper had been in poor health since before his wife died Sunday Aug.
30, 1891, and had grown steadily worse.
He died of cancer, for which he had received skilled treatment without permanent relief in Chicago and at other points.
He realized that there was no hope of recovery and bore his affliction with Christian resignation.

In his life time Mr. Stamper had been an active business man, and was also an official of the First M. E. Church. He came to Decatur in 1863 and married Ann M. Snyder, January 15, 1866. Mrs.
Stamper died in 1891 on the same day of the week and at the same hour that her husband passed away. The surviving children are Josephine Stamper, of Decatur, Mrs. A. W. Oliver, of Wichita, Kan., Mrs. Charles G. Martin, of Decatur and Mrs. Frank W. Oliver, of Wichita, Kan.

Mr. Stamper was born in Bourbon county, Kentucky, Nov. 15, 1816, and was in the 75th year of his age. He came to Illinois in 1842 and as above stated, came to Decatur in 1843, engaging in the dry goods business. He was with Condell, Jones and Co., and afterwards was the senior member of the old firm of Stamper & Condell, which carried on the dry goods business for so many years in the building now occupied by O. H. Bach-rach. Mr. Stamper was always a man of public spirit, who had a large personal acquaintance in the city and county. He was a member of Mason Lodge No. 8, Masons.

The sisters of the deceased are Mrs.
Noah Matheny, of Springfield, and Mrs.
Rev. Andrew, of Indianapolis, Ind.
They are now in the city; also the daughters and Mrs. Dr. Dickson, of Springfield, niece of the deceased.

The funeral will take place from the residence of Charles G. Martin, in Riverside Place, to-morrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 2 o'clock. Dr. T. A. Parker, of the First M. E. church, and Mason Lodge No. 8, will have charge of the ceremonies.

Judges, Do Your Duty.

One of the most important duties of a judge of election, under the new ballot law, is to place his initials on the ballot of the voter before he hands the ballot to him. The object of this provision of the law is to prevent voters substituting ballots marked on the outside of the polling place by designing men for the one he got from the judge. The benefit of this provision of the law cannot be had unless the judge who places his initials on the ballot examines the initials on the ballot when offered by the voter as he comes from the booth before the ballot is deposited in the box. Otherwise the voters could vote ballots fixed on the polling place without fear of detection.
Unless the judge placing his initials on the ballot examines the initials, to determine whether the ballot offered is the same that was given to the voter, he might just as well not place his initials there at all. If the initials are not for the purpose of detecting voters who may attempt to change tickets on the judges, what are they there for? There can be no detection if there is no examination of the initials by the judges who put them there.

Judges should bear in mind that the law does not require the initials of the name of an election judge for ornament but for business, and they ought to make business of it.

Sixth District Polls.

Information relative to the polling place in the Sixth district has been sent out which is misleading. Some, through this information are under the impression that the polling place for this district is at Doak's barn. The polling place is at the implement store of Spencer Lehman & Co., where the town meeting will also be held. See election notices which have been published in the papers and also posted at the polling places.

Champion of the West.

pion bicyclist of the west and holds the passing at the time.

Macon County's Wealthy People.

On Saturday the REPUBLICAN published a list of Macon county citizens who are worth $100,000 and more. While the list contained a large number of names it was by no means complete, and in addition to that list we add the names of A. Harpette, Jason Rogers, Peter Loeb, Isaac Shellabarger, E. H.
Roby, H. M. Whitmer, W. H. Linn and Daniel Stockey. No doubt there are still other citizens who have reached this figure in their accumulations. The object in publishing the list is to show what Macon county has produced along this line. It is also worthy of remark that nearly every one of these people began life poor, and have made and saved these fortunes by their own energy, economy, perseverance and good management. There are a great many others in Macon county who have almost reached the hundred thousand dollar notch, and who will finally land there.

EASTER AT THE CHURCHES.

Resurrection Sermons, Songs of Praise and Beautiful Floral Displays.

Knights Templar and Knights of Pythias Attend Services in a Body—Impressive Exercises.

The end of the Lenten season and the recurrence of Easter—the queen of festivals in the Christian calendar, a time of renewed hope and positive encouragement for all who believe in the immortality of the soul and the divinity of Christ, was observed at all of the Decatur churches on Sunday. It was a bright, balmy and beautiful spring day—no clouds, no rain, and a flood of sunshine to make glad the hearts of the people and afford the customary display of beautiful Easter garments, new hats and flowers. In every church were out flowers, bouquets and plants, all arranged in good taste, and every house of worship was filled at both services.

METHODIST CHURCH.

This new house of worship was seen to its best advantage Sunday morning, when every pew in the auditorium, every pew in the balcony, and nearly all of the chairs in the adjoining Sunday School room were taken. Chairs were also in the aisles of the auditorium and in the loggia. The members of Beaumont Commandery, No. 9, Knights Templars, at the morning hour, in full dress uniform, attended the services in a body, commanded by Major F. M. Young. Pews had been reserved for the Knights in the body of the church, and they marched in with military precision, holding the crossed swords aloft while the past eminent commanders passed under from the rear to the front. The church choir, assisted by Miss Van Stone, soprano, Leo Halpin, violinist, and Miss Emily Hamsher, pianist, rendered excellent Easter music. Miss Van Stone sang a solo, "Resurrection" which was given with pleasing effect. After the responsive reading by the Sir Knights the pastor Rev. W. H. Penhallow delivered the sermon for the occasion. The subject was "True Knighthood" in the discussion of which Dr. Penhallow paid a high tribute to the order enlarging upon the beneficent teaching of the organization and the manly character of the Knights. The sermon as a whole was appropriate and commanded the closest attention. In the evening the church was filled again, when there was an interesting Easter song service. Dr. Penhallow gave a short address.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

The services at the Congregational church Sunday were unusually impressive and beautiful. The pastor, Rev. W. C. Miller, occupied the pulpit at the morning hour and preached from the text: "For me to live is Christ," giving most hopeful and suggestive thoughts concerning the endlessness of life, a most appropriate thought for the day. Sixteen new members were received into the church and the communion of the Lord's supper was observed. At the evening hour the church was packed, chairs being placed in the aisles. The exercises were in charge of the superintendent of the Sunday school, E. F. Irving. A prayer song by the children, in which Robert Muncie sang the solo part very sweetly, and another by little girls in which Marion Williams, Bessie Miller and Ethel Turner took the leading part, were pleasing features of the opening exercises. The pastor gave a brief but significant and forcible talk on "Gates Ajar," following which came the representation of this thought by a large company of young ladies. It was admirably executed and strongly impressed the truth it taught. A description of this idea would be an injustice. It must be seen to be appreciated. The choir and orchestra assisted in the music. The decorations representing the "Gates Ajar" were unique and well executed. The whole day was most beautiful and helpful one to all who entered into the thought of the Easter services.

AT THE METHODIST CHURCH.

The love feast at 9 o'clock in the lecture room was largely attended, and nearly every one present had something to say in thankfulness for the blessings enjoyed during the past week. At 10:30 a. m. the services were in charge of the pastor, Rev. T. A. Parker, who made the announcements for the coming week and then introduced the new presiding elder, Rev. O. Galester, who preached an excellent sermon. At the close, Evangelist Miller sang a solo, and Dr. Parker extended an invitation to any who desired to unite with the church. At this service the congregation nearly filled the large audience room.

At 2 p. m. the Sunday school observed a beautiful Easter service consisting of music, recitations, responsive readings, etc. Charles Imboden had a recitation, Lena and Bessie Fife sang a song, and the primary department had a part in the exercises. It was Easter and missionary day combined, and the collection was $58.21. The attendance was 528. The evening service was one of more interest than has yet been manifested. The evangelist preached on future punishment, and had the profound attention of his hearers. When the appeal was made for penitents to kneel at the altar, nine persons responded, and some were happily converted.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH.

was very beautiful in its Easter attire Sunday. Banks of lovely flowers extended from the floor to the very top of chancel parapet, covering the entire choir front of the church. It is estimated that at least 400 blooming plants were used in this decoration. Among them were several plants placed there in memory of the dead. The floral pieces within the sanctuary and upon the altar were many and very lovely. The music was never drier than at the morning service. For three months it has been in preparation and this was indeed a festival of song. The church was crowded to the doors and nearly all remained, the interest was so intense, until the close of the choral celebration of the holy communion. The pastor, Rev. Montgomery M. Goodwin, preached a scholarly extempore sermon from the text Mark xvi-7.

The Sunday school festival at 8 p. m. was most interesting, and attracted a large congregation. In the evening the Knights of Pythias, both lodges, and the Uniform Rank attended the service. There were more than one hundred men in line, and the service was one of intense interest. The church and aisles were filled with people, and it was estimated that two hundred people were turned away, being unable to find room. The pastor's sermon was delivered extemporaneously, and was marked by richness of thought and carefulness of preparation, which always distinguishes him. The text was Rom. xiv-9. At the close of the sermon he brought the Knights to their feet and delivered a very impressive charge. The Knights left the church with the boy choir in the procession. The program of music as published Saturday was observed.

U. S. CHURCH.

The morning meeting at the U. S. church yesterday at 9:30 o'clock by Rev. G. K. Little took on the form of a praise meeting and continued in a spirited manner until 10:30, when the pastor announced his text, John 20:20, "Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord." At the close of the sermon four were received into the church and five were baptized. In the evening the house was crowded to the doors and promptly at 7:30 o'clock the usual song service began which lasted about ten minutes. Just before the sermon Mrs. Little sang in a very affecting manner. "The Ninety and Nine." Rev. Little selected for his text, Matt. 27:22, "What shall I do with Jesus?" He held before his audience the importance of this question by forcibly impressing every mind by argument and illustration that each was doing something with Jesus, and that it was useless to try to shift the responsibility on some one else. The sermon throughout was full of deep thought, and made its impression on the audience as was evidenced by six coming forward to the altar and eight arising for prayers. Five were converted and eight united with the church at this service, making twelve that united with the church during the day. There will be meeting to-night at 7:30 o'clock.

AT GRACE M. E. CHURCH.

Large congregations attended the Grace M. E. church. The audience room was beautifully decorated with potted plants and flowers. For some weeks this church has been having congregational singing, exclusively. Yesterday Miss Anne B. Henkle presided at the organ, and the singing by the congregation was inspiring. The sermon by the pastor was upon the text, Job, 19, 25, "I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that He shall stand at the latter day upon the earth." At 2 p. m. the Sunday school held its Easter missionary exercises in the audience room, under the direction of Will Shellbarger. The singing was led by Geo. Handy, now of Bay City Mich., but formerly chorister of the Grace church Sunday school. The school numbered about 400 yesterday, and the special missionary collection amounted to $303. In the evening Rev. O. Galester preached an able sermon. His text was Luke 10: 32. This was Mr. Galester's first appearance before a Grace church audience and he made a fine impression.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.

The program which was observed Sunday morning and evening at the Baptist church was printed in full in Saturday evening's Republican. The church was filled at both services, and the decorations were very beautiful. They consisted mainly of potted plants and cut flowers, and were arranged on the altar in a very artistic manner. The singing was exceptionally fine, among the best in the city.

Rheumatism Quickly Cured. Three days is a very short time in which to cure a bad case of rheumatism; but it can be done, if the proper treatment is adopted, as will be seen by the following from James Lambert, of New Brunswick, Ill.: "I was badly afflicted with rheumatism in the hips and legs, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It cured me in three days. I am all right to-day; and would insist on every one who is afflicted with that terrible disease to use Chamberlain's Pain Balm and get well at once." 50 cent bottles for sale by W. F. STATE FAIR FACTS.

A Table That Shows Decatur to Be the Best Place to Locate the State Fair.

Patriot Henry once said, "There is but one lamp by which my feet are guided—the lamp of experience." This is as true in reference to business as it is with reference to political principles. If the facts show that the state fair was most profitable when held in Decatur then it follows that in permanently locating the fair Decatur will be chosen if the interests of the people are consulted and the lamp of experience will be followed.

Ex-Senator W. O. Johns has prepared a table from the state records, showing the result of state fairs held in Decatur, Springfield, Chicago and Peoria.

This table, unlike some tables presented in the interest of locating the fair at other points, contains true figures taken from the records and are not doctored in the interest of Decatur. They can be verified by a reference to the record and cannot be refuted. The state fair, as shown by this table, was held in Decatur in the years 1863, 1864, 1869 and 1878.
In Springfield in the years 1853, 1864, 1879 and 1880. In Chicago in the years 1855, 1861, 1865, 1868, 1883, 1884, 1885 and 1886. In Peoria in the years 1857, 1873, 1874, 1881, 1882, 1889, 1890, 1891 and 1892.

DECATUR.

The table shows that the average receipts at Decatur were $20,835.21, average expenses $18,364.30, average gain $2,470.
91, and average premiums offered $2,665.
25. These figures show that the premiums offered were only 40.5 per cent. of the receipts, and that the gains were 10 per cent. of the receipts. They also show that the clear gain was equal to 81 per cent. of the premiums offered.

SPRINGFIELD.

The showing for Springfield is, average receipts $14,815.98; average expenses $15,746.78; average loss, $930.80; average premiums offered, $9,769. These figures show that the premiums offered were 61 per cent. of the receipts, and that the gains were only three per cent. of the receipts and that the clear gain was only equal to 12 per cent. of the premiums offered.

CHICAGO.

The table shows for Chicago, average receipts, $26,612.61; average expenses, $26,380.13; average loss $1,232.48; average premiums offered $16,513. These figures show that the premiums offered were 61
per cent. of the receipts and that the gains were only 2.5 per cent. of the receipts and that the clear loss was equal to 1/4 of one per cent. of the premiums offered.

PEORIA.

The table shows for Peoria, average receipts, $31,833.44; average expenses, $29,007.03; average gain, $2,826.41; average premiums offered, $13,655.61. These figures show that the premiums offered were 50 per cent. of the receipts and the gains only a fraction over 8 per cent. of the receipts, and that the clear gain was equal to only 19 per cent. of the premiums offered.

These figures show that Decatur, as compared to the other cities referred to in the table, is the best place by long odds to hold the fair. It is also worthy of note that when Decatur made this record it had less than 7,000 population; had only two railroads; had no paved streets, no electric cars, no electric lights.
The success of the fair at Decatur grew out of the fact that it was then as it is now, the central point, and hence the most accessible to those who make a state fair a success.

The fair had no state appropriation to aid it when it was held in Decatur and in the estimate in the table no attention was paid to the appropriations made by the state to aid the fair in other localities.

Died at the Hospital.

Mrs. Kate Shirey, wife of J. D. Shirey, died at St. Mary's Hospital, Sunday April 2, at 12 o'clock, in the 524 year of her age. Mrs. Shirey had been afflicted with an ovarian tumor for a long time, and last Thursday afternoon submitted to a surgical operation.
The funeral will take place from the family home in John's pasture at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

There are no children. The husband is a blacksmith who is in the employ of C. W. Frew on Wood street.

The Stage To-Night.

The New York Dramatic Mirror had this to say of the play to be given at the Grand to-night:

"The Fire Patrol," with all its sensational features and with an excellent company, packed the Grand Opera House on Monday night and created a sensation.
The play abounds in incidents that are strictly original, and it tells a tale that is interesting from start to finish. The play was welcomed as a refreshing thing in a way of newness, and was liberally applauded throughout. It scored a triumph, and will play a return date.

E. D. BARTHOLOMEW.

Wanted.

Everybody to know that I am a candidate for the office of justice of the peace; that I need the office, and that I will be grateful to all who will help me by their votes to attain it Tuesday next. Respectfully, J. Q. A. Odor.

Little Yarns.

There is such a thing as having too much of a good thing, and that's what happens to Ben Brandom, the hero of "The Grudge's Merry Three," in which Miss Lillian Kennedy will appear at the Grand Opera House Wednesday, April 6.
The luckless but lovely little fisher-maiden has three sweet-hearts at once and of course she can only marry one.
One of the rejected suitors, a first-class villain tries his very hardest to make Ben a widow and his wife by all sorts of plots. He comes pretty near succeeding sometimes, especially when he blinds Ben's husband to the steel rails in front of an express train. But even at this extremity point, brave little Ben is too much for the cowardly scamp. She saved her husband and his assistant is shot down by the other fellow whom Ben couldn't marry. A real passenger locomotive dashes at full speed across the stage during the sensational episode above narrated. Some lovely views of England's fairest sea-coasts are included in the special scenery painted for this production.

Laughter and Music.

"A Breezy Time," the attraction at the Opera House Thursday evening, April 6, is now in its second season. Like wine, it is said that "A Breezy Time" improves with age and although it is still young it has been built up since it was last sent on the road. It is now under a new management, and new gags, incidents and specialties have been introduced liberally. The only people who remain from the original organization of last season are E. B. Fitz and Kathryn Webster; the former a comedian of exceptional abilities and the latter a scoubrette who actually has a singing voice. Although "A Breezy Time" has a plot, and an interesting one at that, it is not so elaborate that a special car has to be used to carry it from place to place.

Vote to Refund.

The first thing every voter should do next Tuesday when he gets his ticket and goes into the voting booth, is to look at the bottom of his ticket and put an x in the square opposite the word "yes" in the proposition to refund the bonds issued in 1873 to the Decatur & Monticello Railroad company. These bonds will be due in September and cannot be refunded unless a majority of all the people who vote Tuesday vote for refunding bonds. This the voter can do and save taxes by putting an x after the word "yes." Don't forget it.

"The New Dairy."

I desire to announce to the public that I have started "The New Dairy," near Decatur, and am now ready to supply the public with large or small quantities of milk. My dairy consists principally of the pure Holstein and Jersey stock. I propose to furnish pure and clean milk, and can assure all that will give me a trial that they will be convinced that I mean what I say. Address all orders to P. O. Box 125, or 104 East Prairie street.
Orders filled April 5th.

m31-345 PHILIP A. LUTZ.

The Highest Mark.

Miss Edith Race, who is attending the Forrest Park Seminary at St. Louis, and is at present visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. J. R. Race, received word Saturday that she had received the highest mark in her examinations and that her score was 97 1/2 plus. The telegram also stated that her examination papers would be sent to the World's Fair.

Death of Mrs. George Connard.

Mrs. George Connard died Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at her home in Elwin, aged 35 years. The deceased leaves a husband. The funeral will take place Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock from the Elwin Methodist church.

The funeral of the late Miss Clara Sleeter, daughter of John Sleeter, took place Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the German church, northwest of Boody. It was one of the largest funerals ever witnessed in that part of the county. Miss Sleeter was highly esteemed by all of the people in that neighborhood and many and beautiful were the floral tributes placed upon her bier.

Rev. A. H. Baeteman conducted the service in German, assisted by Rev. M.
Auer, who spoke in English. Eight young lady friends and associates of the departed were honorary pallbearers. The active pallbearers were David Pistorious, Edward Jokisch, George Kallenbach, Lewis Kallenbach, Joseph Albens and Daniel Zittrell. Sympathizing friends from Decatur were in attendance. Interment in the German cemetery.

C. M. IMBODEN received a letter from Rev. James Miller, dated April 1, which contains the following: "I have just secured a bond for a deed to the finest lot in Chicago, corner Ashland boulevard and Harrison street, for $22,000. We expect to have a wigwam on it in ten days and commence to build as soon as we can get everything ready, and have one section ready by November 1. Everything works well. The trustees are a unit in the good work."

Anniversary.

Dunham Post, G. A. R., on Thursday evening, April 6, will celebrate the anniversary of the organization of Old Post One, on which occasion the surviving members of Old Post One will meet with the members of Dunham Post.

Don't Miss It.

If you do you will be the loser, for you can get Cut Glass at a price you cannot afford to miss at E. D. Bartholomew's.
